

This is the End of the Line

Congratulations! on completing Product Matters 5.0, it's been an incredible ride, and we're so glad you were a part of it! 🎉
Over the past four weeks, we've seen you dive into the world of product management with energy, curiosity, and a genuine eagerness to learn. And honestly? It wasn't just a learning experience for you, it was one for us too. We had a blast putting this course together, from designing the content to reaching out to speakers and watching all of you bring your own spark into every session. Your participation, your questions, and your excitement made it all so worth it. 🙌

Team E-Cell 2025-2026

Whether your goal was to explore a new field, prep for interviews, land an internship or job, or build something of your own, we truly hope Product Matters helped you take a step forward. We really hope it was worth your time.

Thank you again for being part of this journey and for making Product Matters 5.0 what it was.

Having you with us meant a lot, and your energy gave us the motivation to keep building and improving.

This may be the end of the course, but it's just the beginning of your product journey.

Welcome to the Product Matters Alumni Community 🚀
